FOUNDATION FLORISTRY COURSE

TRAINER: PRAYER MTETHWA

FLORISTRY FUNDAMENTALS
WITH PRAYER
(TWO-DAY COURSE)

After 14 years of creating fabulous flower arrangements for day to day deliveries, weddings and event decor and co-facilitating floristry class trainings with Jill Manson, Prayer Mtethwa is stepping into her own teaching shoes and will be presenting foundation courses at Jill Manson Flower school for her fans and eager to learn newbies to the trade!

This course serves as a relaxed, hands-on introduction to floristry, ideal for beginners or those looking to explore floristry as a potential side hustle. It focuses on the foundational skills needed to start creating beautiful floral arrangements.

In this two-day training, you'll learn the essentials of flower care, including how to properly clean and prep flowers, how to prepare the water to ensure they last longer, and how to arrange flowers with basic principles in mind.

You will also be guided through the process of creating a tied bunch of flowers and a classic vase arrangement.

An impactful training with an excellent teacher will give you the core skills to start creating beautiful floral designs at home, explore floristry as a side hustle, or lay the groundwork for a more advanced career in floral design.

WHY A FOUNDATION COURSE IN FLORISTRY?

This Foundation Course is the perfect first step into the world of floristry. Designed as a relaxed and approachable introduction, it's ideal for anyone who wants to learn the essentials of flower arranging without the intensity of a full career program.

In this course, you'll learn how to make and gain confidence in:

- Caring for flowers and ensuring their longevity
- Preparing and cleaning stems, and conditioning water
- Creating simple tied bunches, a symmetrical classic vase arrangement, the art of a sympathy arrangement in a basket, and a modern gift box suitable for a birthday celebration.
- Along with this you will learn how to work with oasis, and create a flower arrangement with a more modern twist suitable for a gift or table centrepiece.

Affordable, practical, and inspiring, our Foundation Course helps you discover the joy of flowers while giving you the tools to grow further in the floral industry.
